

Truman And Dewey Voice Peace Hopes

President Takes Auto Tour Into Illinois

By the Associated Press

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will deliver a major foreign policy speech tonight in Salt Lake City. President Truman meanwhile altered his campaign travel methods to make a 141-mile automobile tour through southern Illinois.

In advance of his nationwide broadcast address, Dewey sent this message abroad—"Let no dictator or trigger-happy militarist anywhere" mistake campaign argument in America as a sign of disunity here.

"The Republican party is engaged in this campaign for the express purpose of bringing our people closer together so they can realize their great future and find peace with honor in the world," the GOP presidential candidate said last night at Great Falls, Mont.

Wobbly Regime Rapped

Mr. Truman also spoke on world peace and America's future in the 100th talk of his cross-country campaign trek. He told a roadside gathering at Eufaula, Okla., yesterday that he is making "every effort possible that the President is capable of to get peace in the world so that the next generation will see the greatest age in history."

"And I believe it will," he added.

En route to Salt Lake City, Dewey told a Helena, Mont., rally that he wants to bring to Washington an administration which will set up a foreign policy "so clear and so consistent" that "no longer will any dictator regard us as weak and wobbly."

Totalitarian states, he said, "must not assume that because any person of high importance is going around the country preaching division that we are in fact divided."

Turning from world affairs, Dewey said that if he is elected his administration will "reject the defeatist doctrine that our country is fated to swing wildly from boom to bust."

FORESTERS ON FIELD TRIP—Members of the Association of State Foresters, meeting at Blaney Park, enjoyed a field trip to the Cleveland Cliff Iron company's timber tract in Luce county on Tuesday. Here are some of them scaling a veneer log cut for the Northwestern Veneer and Plywood corporation. Left to right are: N. S. Rogers, state forester, Salem, Ore.; Fred Lang, director, division of forestry and parks, Little Rock, Ark.; Don Zettler, Marquette, Michigan Conservation department, holding scaler's rule; and Marcus Schaaf, Lansing, chief division of forestry, Michigan Conservation department.

Fire Hazards High In Upper Peninsula

Proclamation By Sigler Forbids All Burning

Lansing, Sept. 30 (AP)—An "explosive" forest fire hazard existed in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan today and all open fire was banned by Governor Sigler in that area.

The governor yesterday issued an emergency proclamation, effective at midnight tonight, forbidding:

"All camp fires except at authorized camp grounds; all pipe, cigar and cigarette smoking except at places of habitation, authorized improved camp grounds, or in any automobile or vehicle operating on state, county, township or private roads and highways; the throwing or causing to be thrown from any such vehicle any matches, ashes, burning tobacco, or other burning material; and all burning of rubbish, slashing, brush piles or stumps."

E. E. Tucker, the conservation department's assistant field administration chief, said the Upper Peninsula woods were in an "explosive state."

No rain has fallen in the area for 17 days, Tucker said, and none of any size for longer periods. Frosts have made the bracken and ferns "dry as dust," he reported.

Conservation department fire fighters fixed the hazard at "number seven," the highest rating.

The hazard is made more dangerous, Tucker said, by the fact that thousands of hunters will go into the woods Friday morning for the start of the Upper Peninsula small game season.

The Michigan National Guard headquarters was asked by the department to alert its units in the Upper Peninsula for possible fire fighting action. The department said rain fell as far north as Gaylord, appreciably reducing a threatened fire hazard in that area which had caused fire fighting experts to consider asking Sigler to extend the emergency proclamation below the Straits.

German Civilians Shot By Russians

Berlin, Sept. 30 (AP)—Russian soldiers who made a foray into the U. S. sector of the city this evening shot and wounded two German civilians, American military police reported.

Military police headquarters said it heard that some armed Russians had entered the U. S.-occupied Borough of Lichtenrade, which lies at the American-Soviet sector borders. Their mission was not immediately known but MPs said the Russians were about four or five blocks inside the American sector.

When an American patrol rushed up to investigate, these reports said, one of the Russians began to run and discharged his rifle, wounding the two Germans.

COUNTY RAISES WAGES
Detroit (AP)—The ways and means committee of the Wayne county board of supervisors has recommended a $225-a-year pay raise for 4,900 county employees. The committee settled on this figure after the AFL had asked $100 and the CIO $300.

Grave Berlin Crisis Up To UN In Paris

Observers Await Action With Rapt Attention

Paris, Sept. 30 (AP)—The United Nations security council today fixed 3 p. m. Monday (9 a. m. EST) as the hour for opening hearings on the western power charge that Russia is endangering world peace by her blockade of Berlin.

(By The Associated Press)

The United States blamed Soviet Russia today for blocking international control of the atomic bomb.

U. S. delegate Warren Austin told a United Nations political committee session:

"Fear has supplanted hope because the Soviet Union has insisted on placing its sovereignty at the expense of security for all."

He reaffirmed the United States' offer to place America's vast atomic know-how under international control.

Who's To Blame?

The important political committee of the U. N. assembly grappled with the atom control problem as the security council prepared to face its greatest test—the Western charge that Soviet Russia is menacing world peace with her blockade of Berlin.

Canada's Gen. A. G. L. McNairton raised the atomic issue. He asked who is to blame for the atomic energy commission's failure to wipe out the bomb after three years of wrangling.

Austin said the Soviet Union had blocked real control of the atom by refusing to sacrifice any of her sovereignty to permit international inspection and control of sources of atomic energy.

McNairton presented a resolution calling upon "all nations to fulfill their responsibilities to the world community by accepting" effective control of atomic energy.

Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky objected that the proposal was a new one, and no Russian text had been provided. He wanted time to study it. Action was deferred.

With the complaint of the United States, France and Britain against Russia officially on its docket, the security council's next move is awaited with rapt attention by both delegates and observers.

Today is the last day Britain's Sir Alexander Cadogan, September chairman of the council, can issue a call for a meeting of the body. The best informed opinion was that it will be summoned for tomorrow or Monday.

Usual Veto Expected

The western power complaint against the Soviet Union, citing the Berlin blockade as a threat to international peace, formally has reached the U. N. in the form of three identical letters, accompanied by some 30 pages of documents giving the history of the controversy.

The letters invoked Chapter Seven of the U. N. Charter, which authorizes the council to use economic penalties and even armed force against a nation guilty of

Injured Boy Hangs In Wrecked Plane

Mother Killed, Son Found After 42 Hours

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 30 (AP)—RCAP flyers today praised the courage of a seriously injured 12-year-old boy who was rescued from a wrecked plane after hanging head-downward for 42 hours beside the body of his mother.

The boy, Michael Lintner, suffered a compound skull fracture, a broken right arm and frozen feet. He underwent surgery at an Edmonton hospital last night and his condition was reported critical.

Michael was being flown by his mother, Mrs. A. L. Lintner, from their home at Anchorage, Alaska, to school in the states when their plane crashed in rugged country 65 miles northwest of Fort Nelson, B. C.

The plane wreckage was sighted yesterday by an RCAF plane which led a ground party to the scene.

Two of the rescuers, Sgt. Larry Poulson and leading airman K. W. Clark, said the boy was conscious when they reached him.

"The boy was one of the bravest I have ever seen in my air force experience," said Clark. "He knew his mother was dead but never mentioned it."

COCHRANE IMPROVED

Prison Medical Staff Shake-up Remains Secret

Lansing, Sept. 30 (AP)—The suspension of two physicians at the Southern Michigan prison came as no surprise today to a committee of doctors and state officials who long ago recommended sweeping changes in the prison medical set-up.

The committee's report, in the months, has been kept tightly locked in the "top-secret" drawer. All efforts of newsmen to dislodge it were met with rebuffs.

The committee was appointed in August, 1947. Members were Dr. Phillip Riley of Jackson, Dr. O. O. Beck of Birmingham, Dr.

William De Kleine, then state health commissioner, James Dack, then an official of the Michigan Hospital association, and William H. Burke, later fired by Sigler as assistant corrections commissioner.

Though the report has not been made public, it was understood to be highly critical of the kind of medical treatment prisoners in the big institution at Jackson, Mich., were receiving.

Reliable informants who asked to be unnamed said the report made strong recommendations for remedying a situation that was undermining the morale of prisoners and endangering the health of those who fell ill or were injured in accidents.

When pressed for details of the report, Corrections Commissioner Joseph W. Sanford always refused on the grounds that it was "critical of the present medical staff" at the prison, and that its release would embarrass the medical officers.

Dr. Lawrence M. Rautz, head physician in the prison, and Dr. DeWitt C. Adams, his assistant, were suspended yesterday on charges of showing a "callous and unprofessional attitude" towards the suicide of a prisoner.

These suspensions were expected to remove the last excuse for not releasing the investigating committee's report.

Individual committee members, contacted during the summer, refused to publicize the report on the grounds that they had been sworn to secrecy and had promised that Sigler or his representatives would have the exclusive right to release it.

Montgomery Picked To Head Five-Power Command in Europe

London, Sept. 30 (AP)—A qualified government source said today Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of Britain's Imperial general staff, has been selected to command the armed forces of the five-nation western European alliance.

The source said announcement of Montgomery's selection will be made in Paris within the next 48 hours by the secretariat of the alliance under the terms of their Brussels agreement.

The five nations in the alliance are Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Zionist President Arrives In Israel

Tel Aviv, Sept. 30 (AP)—Chaim Weizmann, president of Israel, arrived here today to take up residence for the first time in the Jewish state.

The Zionist leader, who was under medical treatment abroad when the state was proclaimed in May, flew here with his wife from Switzerland in a four-engine Swissair plane owned and operated by the Israel government.

Weizmann embraced Yosef Shprinzak, chairman of the state council, and three cabinet members who met him at the airport and then drove to his home at Rehovot.

U. P. TEACHERS CONVENE HERE

Meeting Will Continue Tomorrow

Teachers were arriving by train, automobile and bus from all corners of the Upper Peninsula today to attend the annual convention of Region Seven of the Michigan Education association.

The convention opened this afternoon with the teachers attending division programs for the discussion of problems in elementary, high school and rural education. Parent-Teacher representatives convened at the First Presbyterian church this afternoon to hear an address by Charles E. Brake, deputy superintendent of the Wayne county schools.

Other speakers at the division meetings this afternoon were: Elizabeth Irwin, U. of M. Extension Service, Detroit; Clyde M. Pauts, Milwaukee attorney; and Clyde Campbell, director of teacher placement at Michigan State College.

At the general session tonight at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium, the teachers will hear addresses by Mr. Brake and Suzanne Silvercruys, internationally famous and lecturer.

Sectional meetings will be held Friday morning. Principal speakers at the general program Friday afternoon will be Capt. Carlos Fallon, who will discuss Latin American affairs.

Fire Hazard, But Bird Season Will Open On Schedule

Persistent rumors to the contrary, the Upper Peninsula bird season will not be closed because of the fire hazard, Escanaba conservation officers reported this morning.

The season opening and closing dates will remain the same, they said. The season will open tomorrow morning and close October 20.

"Many rumors have been heard around here about the possibility of closing the bird season because of the extreme fire hazard existing in Upper Michigan woods at this time," the officers said. "But there is nothing to these rumors. It would take legislative action to close the bird season. The dates will remain the same."

Clean Get-Away Washed Up Here By Too Much Soap

When the five prisoners in the second floor cell block of the Delta county jail started asking for soap and more soap the sheriff's officers came to the conclusion that there must be dirty work going on.

Sheriff William E. Miron today reported that the requests for soap lead to the discovery that the five young prisoners were using it to chip up the bricks in the wall after the mortar had been removed.

Several bricks near a window on the south wall had been loosened, removed, and then replaced and chinked with soap. Sand from the old chinking was pressed into the soap to better conceal the work, and two magazine cover pictures were hung over the loosened bricks.

The five prisoners in the cell where the attempted break-out was made are all held for trial in circuit court. They are: Carlos Newhouse, 21, and Roland J. Getchell, 21, both of Green Bay, held for trial for breaking and entering an Escanaba jewelry store; Martin Goodwill, 21, and Oliver Couillard, 21, both of the Chemical plantation, and Joseph Peters, 18, of Munising, who are charged with stealing chickens.

No additional charge has yet been placed against them, said Sheriff Miron.

C-C MEETING IS HELD HERE

National Affairs Are Discussed

What Congress does in the way of enacting national legislation is of direct concern to business men and other citizens in every community in the United States, officials of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce told an area meeting of C. of C. representatives at the Delta hotel yesterday afternoon.

The speakers were: Spencer Shaw, manager of the Northern Central division of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Howard Smith and Harry Lintz, national affairs advisor. More than fifty persons from the surrounding area were in attendance.

"What happens in Washington has a direct influence on your business here at home," said Shaw, who served as chairman of the meeting. "We must no longer think that we are just little people and Washington is too far away for us to assume any responsibilities in national affairs."

Says Economy Needed

The maintenance of good government is the responsibility of all the people of America, said Mr. Smith, who addressed the group on the subject, "The Business Man's Take in National Affairs."

Members of Congress are continually being subjected to the demands of pressure groups, Smith said. He added that every move toward economy brings protests from certain groups who benefit. Pointing out that salaries in Washington are based on the number of persons employed in a department, Smith charged there is much overlapping and duplication of effort in the federal government.

Smith said that the Hoover commission will submit its report on the reorganization of federal government to the 81st Congress. The report will recommend changes to effect economies and efficiency, and it will be the responsibility of the Congressmen and the people to see that it becomes effective by law.

"Every nine days, the government of the United States spends one billion dollars," Smith said. "If 1,000 men, earning $10 a day, had begun working in 1676, just 100 years before the Declaration of Independence, and worked every day, it would take them until 1950 to earn a billion dollars. We are badly in need of economy in our federal government."

Urges C-C Committees

Chambers of commerce were advised by Mr. Lintz to appoint national affairs committees and hold regular meetings to discuss governmental problems. He told of the various bulletins and information services offered by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in Washington.

"You cannot make intelligent decisions unless you have the facts," Lintz said. "It's later than we think, but there is still time to do a job. We must interest ourselves in national affairs. Complacency in a world like we are living in today is too expensive."

Mr. Shaw served as moderator in the forum discussion that followed the two addresses. Someone raised the question as to why organized labor was opposed to the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and the moderator called on Ivan Brown, president of the Ford CIO local and a member of the Iron Mountain Chamber of Commerce.

"Organized labor feels that the U. S. Chamber has supported the interests of labor," Brown replied frankly. "For instance, the Chamber endorsed universal military training, reduction of taxes, and the housing act, which labor supported."

"However, I feel there is an opportunity for organized labor and the Chamber to cooperate for the good of all. I feel there has been too much misunderstanding. True, there have been excesses, but by and large, we believe, organized labor is a democratic organization. We debate questions fully and our differences are finally resolved in a democratic fashion."

Mr. Shaw explained positions on national legislation are not taken by officials of the U. S. Chamber on their own initiative, but are assumed after a nationwide referendum vote by its member organizations.

Obituary

ELLEN SUE WILS
Funeral services for Ellen Sue Wils, year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Wils of Rapid River, Route One, who was instantly killed Tuesday when she was run over by a truck delivering wood in the yard of her home, were held at 9 o'clock this morning at St. Charles church in Rapid River.

Rev. Fr. Anthony Schloss offered the Mass of the Angels, and the music was sung by the senior choir of the church with Dale Tienert, organist. Burial was in Rapid River cemetery.

Pallbearers were Helen Cassidy, Mary Ethel Hayes, Dawn Grey and Jean Boyer.

The Skradski funeral home of Gladstone was in charge of arrangements.

STEPHEN PERSIAN
Funeral services for Stephen Persian who was fatally burned in a fire in the basement of his home will be held at 9 a. m. Friday at St. Joseph's church. Rev. Arnold Thompson officiating, and burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery. The rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock this evening at the Boyce funeral home where the body is in state.

Breaks Leg In Jump From Roof

Kay Frances Goodreau, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goodreau of Bay View, fractured her right leg last night when she jumped from the roof of a shed near her home where she and a group of companions were playing. The accident occurred at 7 o'clock. The child was taken to St. Francis hospital.

The name of cannel coal, which burns with a bright smokeless flame, is believed to be a corruption of the word candle.

S. G. FONTANNA TO HEAD GROUP

State Foresters Elect
Officers At Blaney

Stanley G. Fontanna, Lansing, deputy director of the Michigan Conservation department, was elected president of the Association of State Foresters at the closing session of its 26th annual meeting at Blaney Park Wednesday.

Other officers named were: Vice president, Nelson Roger, state forester, Salem, Ore.; secretary-treasurer, George Dean, Charleston, Va.; and member of executive committee, J. Whitney Floyd, chief forester, Logan, Utah.

In resolutions adopted at the executive session, the association agreed to have a representative at Washington, D. C., to act as an information service; urged increase of cooperative forest fire control funds under the Clark-McNary act from $9,000,000 to $20,000,000 by 1955; and advocated increasing up to $2,500,000 the Clark-McNary funds for the production and distribution of forest planting stock.

State Treasurer D. Hale Brake was the banquet speaker instead of P. J. Hoffmaster, director of the Michigan Conservation department, who was unable to come to Blaney.

"There is the impact of government upon every human activity, including forestry," Brake said. "We are likely to think of government only in its regulatory phase, and to forget it so far as any positive assistance is concerned unless we happen to be directly interested in some governmental appropriation."

"We are conscious of government so far as it tells what to do and what not to do, but seldom recognize that were it not for the protection and assistance of government there is scarcely anything we could do successfully or satisfactorily.

"Government can with sound and progressive policies and satisfactory laws make it possible for you to succeed in what you wish to do in the forestry field. Here in Michigan, where much land is adapted to raising forest products, we urgently need a good cutting practice act to assist in insuring a supply of timber for future generations.

"It is part of the forester's job to furnish leadership to the people, share with them your technical knowledge, to point the true path and, warn us of dangerous mistakes."

Slow Time In Gladstone

ON OCT. 3 Gladstone will revert to Central Standard time for the winter months. Escanaba and most of the remainder of the county, if not all of it, will continue on Eastern Standard time. The result will inevitably create a degree of confusion in the commerce and social schedules between the communities.

The action of the Gladstone city council in approving a return to slow time on Oct. 3, however, conforms to a majority vote of the residents of Gladstone in a recent advisory referendum. A majority of the people of Gladstone apparently favor slow time, just as a majority of the people of Escanaba, as expressed in a similar referendum, favor fast time. Although the conflict in time schedules between the two communities is regrettable, the right of each to adopt the kind of time schedule that a majority of its citizens desires is strictly a local prerogative.

We emphasized that point on a previous occasion when a movement was launched for a county-wide referendum on the time issue. When that proposal was advanced, Escanaba had previously conducted an advisory vote on the time question and local citizens approved fast time the year around. We opposed a county-wide referendum because we believe that if the people of Escanaba want fast time, they are entitled to have it, regardless of what the rest of the county may feel about the question.

The same prerogative, of course, is possessed by the people of Gladstone. They have indicated by a majority vote that they prefer slow time in the winter months. Their city council simply is fulfilling the desires of a majority of the people in that city.

The decision of Marquette county to remain on fast time indefinitely further complicates the time problem for Gladstone, because Gladstone will be an oasis of slow time entirely surrounded by fast time zones. We repeat, however, that if the people of Gladstone want it that way, it is their prerogative.

Sigler's Popularity

THE REELECTION of Kim Sigler as governor of Michigan is virtually assured on the basis of the official returns announced by the canvassing board.

Although he was supposed for the Republican nomination, Sigler received 145,000 more votes in the primary election than the combined votes of the three Democratic candidates. This is particularly significant in view of the fact that many voters do not bother to cast a vote for an unopposed candidate.

Sigler could lose the election, of course, if the Republican organization in Michigan took his reelection for granted and failed to put on an active campaign. The probability of this happening in a presidential election year, however, is extremely remote. The Republicans are planning a vigorous campaign for Dewey, for Sigler and for GOP nominees all the way down the line to the most insignificant county office.

The popularity of Gov. Sigler as expressed by the Republican voters in the primary election belies the contention of Sigler's opponents that he has lost much of the support that brought him into the governor's office on a reform platform two years ago. On the contrary, the primary support given to Gov. Sigler was the largest any governor has had in 20 years, excepting 1936, when the late Frank Fitzgerald polled 445,000 votes in the primary of that year. Sigler's total this year was 430,000 unopposed for the nomination.

VA Curbs Fun Courses

DESPITE the Veterans Administration report that a large percentage of applications for flight training and photography courses are being held up, it is still too early to determine whether the VA is really cracking down on this type of GI benefits.

Of 15,016 applications for courses on the VA "questionable list," only 6,237 have been granted. This would indicate, of course, that the Veterans Administration is screening the applications carefully. However, only 262 have been rejected and the remaining 8,517 have merely been delayed pending the receipt of supporting information. It is what happens to the applications now in the "delayed" file that will determine whether the VA is pursuing a tough policy or a generous one.

The GI training provisions were enacted by Congress to assist returning veterans catch up on the educational opportunities they lost while they were in service. They were not designed to provide entertainment or hobbies for the returning veteran. Already millions of dollars have been poured into social courses that have no relationship at all to a veteran's occupational inclinations.

The fact that the Veterans Administration is not approving these applications perfunctorily now is an encouraging sign.

High Fire Hazard

THE September weather this year is extraordinarily wonderful. Bright sunshine and warm days, nights just chilly enough to be refreshing, have combined to provide early fall weather that has been grand.

Unfortunately, we cannot eat our cake and have it, too. The balmy weather has created an extremely high fire hazard and the danger of the forest lands exploding in a wrath of fire is acute.

The absence of rain for the past three weeks has left the woods tinder dry. With the opening of the bird hunting season October 1, thousands of sportsmen will be in the woods, vastly increasing the danger of fire.

Unless heavy rains come in the next few days, the risk of fire will increase with each passing day. Already the fire hazard is rated "Extreme."

Sportsmen are reminded not to smoke in the woods and not to build campfires during the period of high hazard. Motorists passing through forest lands are particularly warned against tossing cigarettes from their automobiles. Thousands of acres of valuable timber could be destroyed in a few days under the hazardous conditions that now exist.

Elmo Roper is a brave and hardy man. UBIQUITOUS SIGLER

(Sault Ste. Marie News)

Our governor continues to be ubiquitous. Everywhere his presence graces the occasion, contributes to the thing or adds spice. His Sault appearance was no exception. His address here, delivered from manuscript, is regarded as a masterpiece on Canada-America amity.

His versatility is amazing: his appearances are a credit to Michigan wherever he goes.

He was able to welcome President Truman at Detroit on Labor Day and that night deliver an address to Kiwanis International over 300 miles away from Sault Ste. Marie. And the very next night he was in Grand Rapids, another 300 miles away to address Home Front Organization of Republicans, and size up the fences that Kent County Republicans have built against a possible return to power of Frank D. McKay through the instrument of what is known as the veterans precinct organization.

It is safe to say that the Northern Peninsula has seen more of a Michigan governor in Kim Sigler than any other governor since Chase S. Osborn. There is also a resemblance in the stamina and dynamic qualities of the two governors.

WHAT IS THE ORIGIN?

Q. Why is New York City sometimes referred to as Gotham?—F. O.

A. The terms Gotham and Gothamites were given to New York and its people in 1817 by Washington Irving in the magazine Salmagundi. It was a satirical reference to "The Mad Men of Gotham," a legend of old England.

One day word came to the pleasant village of Gotham that King John planned to build a country palace near by, and that his architects already were enroute to Gotham to select the site.

The Gothamites hatched a plot to discourage the choice of Gotham. Soon the messengers arrived and dismounted at the village green—and looked about them in amazement.

A group of villagers were wading in the pond with an eel tied to a string. They explained that they were teaching the creature to swim. Other Gothamites were rolling cheeses and loaves downhill as the quickest way of getting them to market.

Three fat men were solemnly trying to squeeze themselves into a tub in which they would voyage to unknown lands. Several people were frantically planting a hedge around a thorn bush in which a cuckoo

FCC Attacked By Committee

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington. — Public opinion has come down like a ton of bricks on an extraordinary document recently released by a special House committee investigating the Federal Communications Commission. The general condemnation heaped on the committee's report is a healthy recognition of what seems to be a calculated attempt to block the channels of communications against any viewpoint even slightly unpopular.

The committee, of which Rep. Forest A. Harness of Indiana is chairman, uses as a basis for attacking the Communications Commission two recent rulings.

One, known as the Port Huron decision, reaffirms what is clearly stated in the communications act—that radio broadcasting stations do not have the right to censor political talks.

The second—the Scott decision—reaffirms another basic principle, which is that where fundamental controversies are involved radio stations must accord time to the side that is attacked to reply. The decision, rendered in response to the demand of a professed atheist for revocation of the licenses of stations that denied him time, makes it perfectly clear that his argument is not to be arbitrarily interpreted and that the controversy must be one of genuine public interest.

"THOUGHT POLICING" CHARGED

In short, there was no attempt to say that atheists should be given equal time to answer all religious broadcasts. Yet, by distorting the language of the decision and calling on prejudiced witnesses, that is just what the Harness committee tried to make out. With the most remarkable effort under the circumstances, the committee report accuses the FCC of "thought policing" when that is exactly what the committee is proposing.

The committee report is a strange document. One unidentified witness is quoted as criticizing the Scott decision because of its inept, irrelevant and wordy discussion of atheism and religion. That criticism, in most respects, is valid.

But the witness, one learns from reading the testimony, is Dr. Robert Calhoun of the Yale Divinity school. The committee report carefully does not quote that part of Dr. Calhoun's testimony in which he says he would not deny the right of atheists or Marxists to argue their point of view, even though to him that viewpoint seems utterly wrong.

In his enlightened and highly informed discussion of the issue, Dr. Calhoun makes many important points. But one struck me as particularly important at this moment: "Actually, diversity of view is one of the most exciting aspects of our American scene."

That is a truth that goes back deep in the American tradition and we should not let nervous, fearful, neurotic men divert us from it. Dr. Calhoun speaks of the danger of "a kind of monolithic culture" developing in this country, which would squeeze out even feebly dissenting opinion.

"ALL-POWERFUL STATE"

We know, most of us Americans, the kind of monolithic culture in an all-powerful state that prevails in the Soviet Union, and we want none of it. But some of us are unaware that ever-narrowing control by private interests can have almost as deadly an effect as the all-powerful state. It can, in fact, and here is the danger, prepare the way for the all-powerful state.

The Harness committee is building up to a further investigation of the FCC. Its members believe they have a case in Ohio which, with some proper tailoring, can tie the Communist tag on the commission.

This appears to be the beginning of a deliberate effort to shut out any voice even a shade to the left of center. Such an effort can badly backfire, and the responsible leaders of the radio industry surely know it.

Soon to go on the air here in Washington is WCFM, a new FM station organized by co-operatives and those who believe in co-operation. Some of us have tried to help this cause along precisely because we believed, as Dr. Calhoun said, that "diversity of view" is the essence of America. Perhaps the Harness committee will get around to finding that this is un-American.

The majority of radio stations and the networks try hard to play fair and give conflicting viewpoints a hearing. In the current campaign it has seemed to me that they have bent over backward to provide Henry A. Wallace and his Progressive party with radio time. One large midwestern station recently invited Glen Taylor to speak because it was felt the third party had not been given a sufficient hearing.

That is the attitude of American fair play and it is also a sound self-interest. The view of the fact that the air waves are not the property of any individual or group of individuals. If any segment of the radio industry is behind the peculiar maneuvers of the Harness committee, it will find eventually that it is contributing to its own undoing.

perched. This, they said, was to prevent the bird's flying away.

Imbecility was on every hand. Shaking their heads, the architects departed and advised King John to establish his new residence as far as possible from the mad men of Gotham.

Mr. Colby's Lie-Lay, Sit-Set pamphlet makes these confusing word-pairs as simple as ABC. The non-technical key does the trick. For a copy, send 5c in coin, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to him, care of Escanaba Daily Press, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

What, No Brakes?

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

ANOTHER ALASKAN—This is the third and last column concerning the vacation adventures in Alaska of Miss Eva Michaud of Escanaba, a staff member of the Daily Press.

Writing from Anchorage on Sept. 24 Miss Michaud reports that she expected to be back in Escanaba by that date—but the delay in the arrival of a baby born Sept. 20 to her brother-in-law kept Miss Michaud in Alaska in the role of nursemaid.

Her brother, John, is employed by the Alaska Railroad. The baby weighed six pounds and twelve ounces and has been named Lorraine. While Mrs. Michaud and the baby were in Providence hospital, Miss Michaud took over the household duties, including the care of two youngsters.

"The job is fine but you never know what to expect next," Miss Michaud reports. "It's been so long since I've taken care of youngsters that I guess I've forgotten some of their tricks. My memory has also been refreshed as to how much time it takes to change, wash and fold diapers. I hope the process is as good for my hands as it is supposed to be!"

WINTER IS NEAR—Miss Michaud presumes, and rightly, that the "hot spell" is over in Escanaba and that we are enjoying "the usual Indian summer."

In Alaska they have had a sample of winter, a bit early, "probably for my benefit," she writes. There has been the threat of snow but none fell, although "we can see loads of it across the inlet and it looks pretty nice."

WITHOUT SUPPLIES — "The Alaskan papers are full of news about the shipping strike. I guess the situation is pretty serious. A lot of building and other work will have to be stopped due to the shortage of material and supplies.

"The food situation is getting bad, the prices are going up every day. The merchants haul out dusty packages and cans that have been here for months, mark them 'airborne and up the price.' "The one good thing about the strike is that people in Alaska may more appreciate the grand job that people in the Valley (Matanuska) are doing in raising vegetables and other food-stuffs."

POULTRY KILLED—Miss Michaud includes in her letter some clippings from the Anchorage Daily News.

"Hens Get The Axe as Poultry Feed Supplies dwindle rapidly," goes the headline. "The current west coast shipping strike has doomed to the axe the largest poultry population Alaska has ever been able to build up. Unless some means can be found of transporting feed here within the next six weeks, poultry and feed dealers said today."

The story explains that egg and poultry producers have only a limited supply of feed on hand, and dairy rations are equally short. The feed cannot be flown into Alaska because of the high cost—$12 per hundred pounds compared with $1.50 for boat freight.

How about trucking the feed in over the Alcan. highway? It

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chynoweth and daughter, Mary, are driving to Chicago Saturday, where Mary will enroll in Moser Business college.

Manistique — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jahn, Frances and Conrad Jahn returned Wednesday from a month's motor trip to Yellowstone Park, Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Los Angeles, returning by the way of Nebraska and Chicago. While in Portland Mr. Jahn attended the National convention of the Spanish American War veterans.

would cost 10 cents per pound, with the possibility that none would arrive once the wintertime bad weather starts.

FROST IN AUGUST—Other clippings from the Anchorage newspaper indicate that Alaska put on a show of fine weather for the past several weeks. There has been only slight rainfall, more than normal sunshine, and occasional frosts along the coast. Inland at Matanuska, Alaska's "bread basket," the frosts held off until late in the season.

The first frost at Anchorage, however, was as early as August 17, and the weather bureau reports that along the coast the temperature can change from freezing to thawing, mild to cool, in a matter of hours.

In previous letters Miss Michaud reported that forest leaves had assumed their Autumn coloring in early September. That was along the coast. Inland at Matanuska there had as yet been no frost and vegetables surprising in size and quantity were being harvested.

COMING HOME—"I still like what I've seen of Alaska and it's a good thing that I'm going home soon," Miss Michaud writes. "If I stayed another month I don't think anyone could talk me out of staying. I'm even used to the alternate mud and dust of Anchorage and riding on the dirty busses, which I thought were terrible at first."

"Living here is very different but after awhile it gets into your blood. When I get good and fed up on the confusion and rushing around that we do in the States, I think I shall come back to Alaska, get myself a little hut and just relax."

Roving Reporter

By Hal Boyle

Portsmouth, N. H., (AP)—New England is old America.

I met a mythical man who lives in a small town here, and I asked him:

"Tell me about New England."

And he said, "what do you want to know?"

"Oh, just what kind of a country it is and what the people are like."

"Well," said the man, "I'll do the best I can to oblige you, but really you came to the wrong man. I'm a stranger myself—only lived in this town twenty years."

"And you call yourself a stranger?"

"I don't," said the man. "But my neighbors do. You know up this way a foreigner is a fellow who lives in the next village. Nobody's a card in New England—but everybody's a character."

"Well, it certainly looks like a wonderful country to raise children in," I ventured.

"It's a better place to raise ancestors," said the man. "You'll never get ahead here without ancestors, we collect ancestors like other people collect stamps."

"My great-great-grandfather," said the man morosely, "overslept and got to Bunker Hill after the battle was over."

"You don't hold that against him?"

"Hold it against him—I'll never forgive him for what he did to me that day!"

"Well, after all, that's past history."

"New England is history," said the man. "You'll never understand us unless you learn that what happened to your forefathers is more important than what is going to happen to your grandchildren."

"You're joking."

"Only mildly," said the man. "A good sound ancestry is the best investment a man can make here. You don't really belong in New England unless you can call Paul Revere's horse by his first name."

"What was his first name?"

"I beg your pardon," said the man, "but we just don't bandy a thing like that around in public."

"I suppose if you had a shoe worn by the horse on that ride it would be a pretty valuable antique."

"How odd that you should bring that up! As a matter of fact we have an original nail from one of the shoes. As far as we have been able to establish, it came from the shoe on the horse's left forefoot."

"Would you care to sell it?"

"It's priceless," said the man. "But I would be willing to sell it—at the right price."

I inquired where he lived.

"I live in the 1767 house," he said. "You know we don't use street addresses here—we just put dates on the houses like the French do on their wine bottles."

"Is it a white house with green shutters and a lilac bush in the yard?"

"Naturally," said the man. "Is there any other kind of house?"

"Do you like New England?"

"What an unusual query. You don't like New England or dislike it—you live it."

"What would you do if you suddenly came into some money?"

"I would paint my house," said the man.

"What color?"

"Well," said the man, "you've touched me on a sore point. All my life I've had a secret desire to paint my house purple. But I know I never will."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington. — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has indicated to friends she will not be speaking in support of President Truman's re-election. This is going to be a big disappointment to Mr. Truman, for way back when the United Nations was first founded and he decided to appoint Mrs. Roosevelt as a delegate, he had in mind getting her support for his re-election. At least, he told Jimmie Byrnes, then secretary of state, that he hoped this would help keep the Roosevelt family in his camp.

Mrs. Roosevelt, however, has told friends that she will remain in Europe at the United Nations general assembly until around December 1, will take no part in the election campaign.

Note—Mrs. Roosevelt was privately opposed to Truman's renomination.

NAVY'S ONE-MAN LOBBY

The Navy has an unofficial press agent on its payroll who bombards editors and congressmen with letters, telling the Navy's side in its feud with the Air Force.

He is Hugh L. Hansen, $9,000-a-year engineer for the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics. Allegedly as a "private citizen," he writes what the Navy would dare not say officially.

This one-man letter lobby, if it doesn't actually violate the lobbying act, certainly is contrary to Secretary of Defense James Forrestal's directive against bickering among the services. Yet Forrestal, instead of rebuking Hansen, has been conferring with him in private.

Hansen claims he composes the letters in his spare time, as "sort of a hobby." Yet the letters are filled with technical information that obviously requires on-the-job research. They are also turned out on such a mass scale that it would take considerable "spare time." In subject matter, the letters consistently hammer the Air Force and support the Navy line.

Hansen even went so far as to write senators against appropriations for the Air Force's giant B-36 bombers. To Senator Brien McMahon, Connecticut Democrat, he wrote: "I would greatly appreciate it if you would tell me why we are expending public funds on a bomber whose performance does not seem to be any better than aircraft available prior to the war."

Hansen gave his home address as Canaan, Connecticut.

However, in a letter to Senator John Bricker, Ohio Republican, this Navy employee gave a different home address—this time, Columbus, Ohio.

Note — Now Hansen has even started writing to the president.

LOUISIANA POLITICS

The Chicago Tribune carried banner headlines recently accusing the Truman administration of threatening Gov. Earl Long with income-tax prosecution if he didn't call a special session of the Louisiana legislature to put Truman's name back on the ballot.

Real fact is that Governor Long does have an income-tax case which has been hanging fire for some time, but his arm was not twisted into calling the special session. The amount of money involved is not great and there was never any question of criminal prosecution.

However, when the U. S. treasury assessed a fraud penalty of $1,200 against Long some time ago, he howled like a stuck pig, said he didn't mind paying the penalty, but didn't want it labeled a "fraud" penalty. The treasury is still dickering with him.

Reason for the rumor about the Truman administration bulldozing Long into calling a special session was the secret tactics of Peyton Ford, assistant to the attorney general, who eased into New Orleans very quietly and had someone else register for him at the Roosevelt Hotel. Ford, whose middle name is "Secrecy," operated in such a hush-hush manner that everyone suspected the worst.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Senator Owen Brewster of Maine spent $1,752 to print copies of his speech attacking Howard Hughes. That doesn't include secretarial service and mailing charges which the taxpayers paid for Brewster due to the fact that he has free franking privileges. . . A long list of New Jersey lawyers have petitioned the justice department to investigate the very serious charges I have made against Congressman Parnell Thomas of New Jersey. . . Four days after he returns from the west, President Truman will hit the road again—in the opposite direction. This time he will speak in large eastern cities—Philadelphia, October 6; New York, N. Archers And Small Game Hunters Ready; Season Opens Friday In U. P.

Shotguns will boom and bow strings will twang tomorrow in the Upper Peninsula at the opening of the 1948 hunting season.

Small game hunters may, starting at 7 a. m. (E.S.T.) Oct. 1 in the U. P., take rabbits, ruffed grouse, woodcock, and (in certain sections) prairie chicken and sharp-tailed grouse.

Archers may hunt deer and bear.

Conservation officers at the headquarters office in Escanaba insist that ruffed grouse are more plentiful this year than last. This is at variance with reports from other observers, but the conservation men point out that many grouse sought the cool swamps for cover during the recent hot weather and may not have been seen.

Because of the dry period the fire hazard has been quite high for the past two weeks, and John Chriske, district conservation supervisor, asked hunters and others to be extremely careful with fire in the woods.

Small Game Season

The 1948 season and bag limits on small game which may be hunted starting tomorrow in the Upper Peninsula includes:

Rabbits, Oct. 1 to March 15, five of one kind (cottontail or snowshoe), 10 combined in possession, and not more than 50 during the season.

Ruffed grouse (partridge), Oct. 1 to Oct. 20, five in one day, 10 in possession, 25 for the season.

Prairie chicken, sharp-tailed grouse, Oct. 1 to Oct. 20, three in one day, six combined in possession, and 15 for the season.

Prairie chicken and sharp-tailed grouse may not be hunted in three Upper Peninsula areas, including that part of Dickinson, Menominee, and Delta counties lying south of Highway US-2 and west of Escanaba.

Woodcock, Oct. 1 to Oct. 20, four in one day, eight in possession at one time.

Government Ready To Buy Potatoes

Official announcement has been made by the State office of the Production and Marketing Administration, USDA, that it will consider the purchase of Irish (white) potatoes under the terms and conditions of the price support program for potatoes, according to Frank Brander, chairman of the Delta County AAA Committee.

The purchase announcement is effective immediately and will continue in effect through next April 30. Potatoes must grade U. S. No. 2 or better, 1 and 7/8 inch minimum size, in order to meet requirements for purchase and the venders must furnish PHA, at their expense, official certificates of inspection by the Federal-State Inspection Service.

Purchases, Brander said, will be made only from those growers, cooperative associations of growers or their authorized agents, or from dealers who have been certified by the county AAA committee as eligible to participate in the price support program. The purchase price will be the applicable support price level.

Interested parties wishing to sell potatoes to the PMA or desiring further information or details relating to this program may contact the county AAA office in Escanaba or may contact Joe Ivens of the Michigan Potato Growers Exchange at 610 First avenue north, Escanaba. The Michigan Potato Growers Exchange has been approved as a certified dealer to handle the purchase of potatoes for the government.

LARGEST CRATER

The largest volcanic crater on earth probably is that of Aso-san, in Japan, a huge oval depression estimated to have an area of at least 100 square miles, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset. Time tables for duck shooting are available at the conservation headquarters office and from conservation officers. On opening day, Oct. 15, shooting may not start until 10 o'clock E. S. T.

Mortarboard Elects Semester Officers

Mortarboard officers for the first semester were elected recently at the first meeting of the senior high school girls' honor society. Janet Oberg was elected president while Lorian Sundelius, Iris Beach and Arlene Severinsen are vice-president, secretary and treasurer respectively.

By rule of the club, the president and secretary positions must be filled by seniors while junior members must hold the offices of vice-president and treasurer.

Elizabeth Irwin Addresses MEA On Self-Discipline

"Toward Self-Discipline" was the title of a talk given for MEA delegates this afternoon by Elizabeth Irwin, instructor, workers educational service, U. of M. Extension Service, Detroit.

Miss Irwin's special field is the child in the elementary school age or latency period. She has conducted a number of discussion groups for parents both in the Detroit area and out of state.

The general objectives of the program for parents as outlined by Miss Irwin, are these: To help parents achieve a better understanding of the growth of human personality, to help parents arrive at a greater knowledge of self to the end that they may undertake measures for self-improvement, both as parents and individuals, to help parents learn and practice better procedures in directing child development.

To encourage independent study on the part of individuals, to use group discussion as a technique applicable to the solution of problems, to help parents to a better understanding of the needs of children in our democracy and in our world in order that action undertaken by them as citizens may be better informed. To help parents have more fun being parents and finally to help children have a happier childhood.

All the United States executive departments were set up by Acts of Congress, the oldest being State, War, and Treasury, which were established in 1789.

What Grade of Beef Are You Really Getting?

It costs us more money, but we insist on buying only U. S. Government Graded and Stamped U. S. Choice, U. S. Good or U. S. Commercial Grades. We believe its worth it. YET YOU PAY NO MORE FOR NATIONAL'S BEEF THAN YOU DO FOR BEEF THAT IS NOT U. S. GOVERNMENT GRADED AND STAMPED. Grading is done at the packing plant by U. S. Six Concert Series Will Be Offered By Town Hall

Beginning with the concert of the National Woman's Symphony under the baton of Tauno Hannikainen on October 8, a series of six concerts will be offered in Escanaba this season under the Junior Chamber of Commerce Town Hall program committee.

Though the entire series may not offer as much as many Escanaba music lovers would like, the program is built around the highest calibre of concert entertainment.

Following the concert by the Woman's Symphonietta next Friday, conducted by the assistant conductor of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, the Westminster Choir will perform, on October 27. The renowned Dr. John Finley Williamson will conduct the choir in its Escanaba concert.

Cloverland Symphony
Upper Michigan's own symphony orchestra, the Cloverland Symphony orchestra, directed by Albert Shoments of Escanaba, will appear in concert under Town Hall auspices on November 21. Appearing with the two-year-old symphony orchestra will be Jackie Beyers of Marquette, who this summer won high honors at the Upper Michigan State Fair, with his piano performance of "Ritual Dance of Fire." Jackie is 10 years old.

Season tickets for this six-concert series may be obtained by writing the JCC secretary, Donald Guindon, at 915 Third avenue south, or by calling at the following cooperating business places: Gust Asp's, Home Supply company, Household Electric company, Vagn's Bakery Bar, Wickert's Floral Shop, Tommy's Restaurant and Johnson's Garage in Bark River.

After the Christmas season, Town Hall programs will be again presented. The first number of the new year will be by Devy Erill, 19 year old French violinist, who will soon begin his first American tour. Throughout Europe his artistry and genius have been acclaimed. He will appear in concert here on January 29, in William W. Oliver auditorium, where all Town Hall concerts will be presented.

Orpheus Choral Club

The season will be rounded out with the traditional performance of the Orpheus Choral club of Escanaba. The chorus, now entering its 10th successful season, is directed by Paul Powers of Rapid River, with Mrs. M. H. Garrard of Escanaba, as accompanist.

All seats are reserved and season ticket prices are set on a three-scale basis with a special price for students.

William W. Oliver auditorium is one of the best of its kind in Upper Michigan, and balcony seats or main floor seats offer all concert goers a 'good listening' position.

This is the second Town Hall season presented under the auspices of the JCC's.

Observance Of
Rosh-Hashana
Opens Sunday

Services of Rosh Hashana the Jewish New Year, which will begin Sunday, October 3, at sundown, will be conducted in Escanaba at Carpenter's hall by Dr. Aaron W. Soffer of Chicago. The holiday marks the beginning of the High Holiday season which will be concluded by the Day of Atonement on October 13.

The New Year has been traditionally known as the "Day of Memorial" since on this day men are to recall and review the events of the past year and at-tune themselves to the higher purpose of life during the coming year. It is on the New Year that men learn to "count their days" properly and thus resolve to apply their hearts unto wisdom.

Another designation for the New Year is the "Day of Blowing the Trumpet". The ram's horn, or the Shofar, is blown to summon men to prayer and repentance. The ram's horn is heard in three distinctive tones in the synagogue on this day. Its trumpet call is a summons for Jews to return to the spiritual life and to all that religion implies.

The third name given to the New Year is the "Day of Judgement". On this day it is believed the Book of Life is opened and in it is inscribed the destiny of each individual. After the ten days of penitence during which Jews are to pray and repent, the Book of Life will be sealed. On the New Year, God sits in judgement over the deeds of individuals and nations. Before His Throne all men must pass. Thus it is that man's dependence on the Almighty is stressed on this day.

Conservative and Orthodox Jewish people observe two days as the New Year. Reform Jews, however, observe only the one day as traditionally prescribed.

Traditionally, this year marks the Jewish year of 5709 since the creation of the world.

Exchange Vows

Rapid River—Miss Donna Mae Boyer and Rudolph Carl Raspor exchanged vows at a nuptial high mass in St. Charles' church Saturday morning, September 25, at 9 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rudy Boyer and Mr. Raspor a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Raspor of Kipling.

Rev. Anthony P. Schloss offered the mass and read the marriage service before an altar beautifully decorated with bouquets of gladioli, asters and roses and vigil lights.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. James Short as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lewis Perlongo, sister of the bridegroom and Betty Jane Boyer, sister of the bride. Lewis Perlongo was best man and James Short and Robert Potvin ushered.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, T. R. Boyer, was gowned in traditional white satin with a fitted bodice, net and lace ruffled yoke, long sleeves pointed at the wrist and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was edged with wide lace with large lace bows at the four points and was caught to a headress of orange blossoms. For the "something old" she carried a white lace handkerchief which her grandmother carried 40 years ago at her wedding. Her colonial bouquet was made of white asters and tiny pink tea roses, with a crystal rosary, the gift of the bridegroom, interwoven in the satin streamers.

The matron of honor wore blush taffeta with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and full skirt and the flowers in her hair matched her bouquet of white asters and pink roses. The bridesmaids wore like gowns of lime green taffeta and they had flower headresses and carried pink asters and white roses.

A chocolate brown gabardine suit with a corsage of red roses was worn by the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore a green print with a red rose corsage.

Dinner and Reception

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom and a dinner for 35 guests at the Log Cabin was followed by a reception for 150 from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boyer, the bride's grandparents.

The couple, after a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, will live in Gladstone Route One. The bride, a graduate of Rapid River high school, has been employed by the Claimant Transfer, Mr. Raspor, who attended Gladstone high school, is an apprentice carpenter.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Raspor, of Kipling; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Perlongo, Gastray; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lueneberg of Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Raspor, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sandstrom, Mr. and Mrs. John Sandstrom, Harold and Walter Lund, Anthony Raspor and Fred Wahl, of Gladstone; William Richards of Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Seger of Rock, Mr. and Mrs. James Short, Stenbenson and Miss Joyce Switzer, Gladstone.

Great Scenes From Great Plays To Be Broadcast By WDBC

"Great Scenes From Great Plays", an entirely new departure in religious radio programs, sponsored by the Episcopal families of Escanaba, will be broadcast for the first time on Friday evening October 1, from 8:00 to 8:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time over Station WDBC and every Friday evening thereafter.

"Cyrano de Bergerac", Edmond Rostand's timeless drama of self-denial, starring the beloved veteran actor Walter Hampden, who created the part of the daring, poet and philosopher Cyrano in more than 1,000 stage performances, will be the first "Great Play" to be broadcast coast-to-coast over 500 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System. This unusual radio series is produced by the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church with the cooperation of the 800 members of the Episcopal Actors' Guild. Mr. Hampden will act as host for all subsequent programs.

A radical departure from the usual religious programs, "Great Scenes From Great Plays" is aimed directly at approximately 70,000,000 Americans who have no church affiliation, as well as those other millions who have allowed their church affiliation to lapse. In urging the earnest support of the clergy for the program, the Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, wrote recently:

"We all know that in this country there are millions of men and women who have no connection with any communion of the Christian Church. If this is to be a truly Christian nation, they must be reached and interested, and this must be done where they are and in a language at the initial approach they can understand."

"I urge your support of this new, to some daring, and yet essentially sound evangelistic plan." Plays for broadcasting on successive Friday evenings during the ensuing months have been carefully selected by the National Council with two ends in view. First a religious message is determined upon, and then a search is made for the outstanding drama that best portrays the message.

WALTER HAMPDEN inaugurates the new radio series, Great Scenes From Great Plays, Friday, October 1, at 8 p. m. over all Mutual stations. The production is Cyrano de Bergerac, a role which Mr. Hampden has played more than 100 times on the stage. Photo shows the dramatic climax of the play... "My White Plume!"

The new series is sponsored by the National Council of the Episcopal Church with the Episcopal Actors' Guild cooperating. It will be broadcast weekly at the same time, bringing great stars of stage and screen in fine dramatic productions.

Without hymns, prayers or reading of scriptures, "Great Scenes From Great Plays" will be heard on Friday evenings in frank competition for listeners with other broadcasts. The commercial announcement will differ only from competitors' in that it has nothing to sell... except that it offers unchurched millions an opportunity to become better acquainted with the Episcopal church and its relation to the individual.

Time Question To Be Reconsidered Friday

Holding of a special session of the city commission Friday afternoon at which the controversial time standard question would be reconsidered was seen as a likelihood yesterday.

The boycott threat which caused Mayor Walter Lied to submit a letter of resignation to the city commission Monday aroused considerable public indignation. Action on Lied's resignation was tabled until Oct. 11.

At a general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening a resolution was offered by Dr. O. S. Hult and adopted endorsing Mayor Walter Lied's services as a public official one hundred per cent.

At last Monday evening's regular commission meeting, the governing body voted to revert to Central Standard time for winter months on the coming Sunday, Oct. 3. The vote was three to one. Commissioners Frank Stupak, Frank Quinn and George Mathison voting yes, while Commissioner Paul Verhamme voted no.

Mayor Lied holds the view that it would be detrimental to the City of Gladstone to be on a time standard different from that of the rest of Delta county.

If the special meeting is held there are several possible actions which can be made. The resolution to revert to central time on Oct. 3 may be rescinded and another adopted providing that Gladstone's time standard be that of the county in general. Again the resolution to revert immediately to central time may be affirmed. There is also the probability that the commission will request the county board of supervisors to submit a time question ballot to voters of the county at the general election in November. The ballot would be purely advisory.

Street lights ready for use. Dedication of Gladstone's new White Way is to be held Friday evening.

The new type mercury vapor lamps have been in use on the north side of Delta avenue for several weeks now and the wiring installation has been completed on the south side of the street for a week or more but throwing of the switch to put them in use is being held up until a formal dedication.

The high school band will participate in the ceremonies Friday evening.

All members of the band are asked by Irving Johns, Jr., director, to be at the high school in full uniform at 8:30 o'clock Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moran of L'Anse, Mich., spent last week end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John DeVoe, city, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moran, Garth shores. The William Moran's are former residents of Gladstone.

Ed Moore of Gladstone has gone to Milwaukee to visit with his daughter who is a patient at St. Francis hospital.

Women's Department — The Women's Department of the Reorganized church of Latter Day Saints is meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, 1604 Lake Shore drive.

Novena Service—Novena services are to be held Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in All Saints' Catholic church.

Special Service—Covenant Education Sunday is to be observed Oct. 3 in the Mission Covenant church with special services. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the young people will present a program especially arranged for the occasion. Helen Marie Sohlberg, representing North Park College, Chicago, will be the speaker. A free will offering will be taken for the college.

LIED'S LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Says Business Affected By City Affairs

Mayor Walter Lied's letter of resignation from the Gladstone city commission as submitted to the commission and read by City Manager H. J. Henrikson at Monday night's meeting of the commission is herewith printed.

Action on the resignation was tabled until the next regular meeting of the commission on October 11.

The text of the letter:

September 27, 1948
"To the Members of the Commission and Citizens of Gladstone:

"With the deepest regret, I hereby tender my resignation as Mayor of your City. With regret as I have endeavored to build up our City and keep it going forward, as Gladstone can be made one of the best cities in the country."

"My reason for resigning is that my business has been affected by city affairs. When the home on the east end of the city was up for discussion, the rumor was spread that I said the people on the east end lived in the slums, which was a false one. The only remark made about slums was by Commissioner Verhamme, who said that every city has a slum problem."

"Also, on the time question no matter which way I would vote, it would again reflect on my business. Personally, I think it would be detrimental for the city to be on a different time than the rest of the county and the counties surrounding us."

"I would like to leave the following thoughts with you, which are as follows:

"A good plan is to forget entirely our own city and give some consideration to community building and what we hope for and expect in a model community that is practical and desirable. This will serve to collect our ideas and fix our opinions on what we want to achieve for ourselves. In making such a consideration we must understand that no reflection is being cast upon our community or any persons in charge of the various departments."

"In outlining such a plan for a better community we will be surprised and delighted to discover in how many respects our community compares favorably with the finest type of community organization. Where it is lacking in certain developments, such lack should not be taken as a criticism of the city, the men who are in charge of its government or the people who live here. Instead, our attention is merely being drawn to what we hope to achieve and it is well to keep such hopes in front of us at all times so that we will not forget about them."

"A successful community provides man with more than merely a place to earn a living and a place to reside. It is well to remember that man does not live by bread alone. He has other aspirations and desires than the mere earning of a living and finding a comfortable place in which to stay."

"It isn't enough for a community to provide merely for the serious needs of mankind. The leisure hours of play and recreation must be filled and opportunity must be presented for friendly social intercourse. Leisure today is no longer limited to one class, and from the idle rich we have with us the idle poor. The value of a constructive use of leisure time has long been recognized. The relationship between lack of proper playground facilities and juvenile crime has long been understood.

"A community that is morally and physically healthful needs a great many facilities for play-parks, tennis and golf courses, swimming pools, accessible picnic grounds; and for evening entertainment, theaters and well regulated dance halls. There also is required a certain neighborliness which makes people feel at home and welcome. A friendly town where jealous groups and rival interests are not found is a more pleasant place in which to live."

"Finally—and I say finally and not first—there is opportunity for business, professional or employment success. A community should be able to provide satisfactory employment at a living wage for all of its working residents. Upon this one factor depends the growth and progress of the community, but upon all of the other factors which I have already mentioned depends the success of the community as a place to live and a place to rear our children."

"I have tried to outline my ideas of how to build a better community. Let us hope that our city shall always be known as a better community."

PLANNING TOURBusiness Men To Visit
Big Producing Areas

A closeup view of Schoolcraft county's bumper potato crop will be the objective of a tour Tuesday of the big producing areas of this and the Cooks vicinity, staged by the Schoolcraft County Potato Boosters Association.

According to plans announced Wednesday, the touring party will start from the Linderoth Farm Supply company at ten o'clock in the morning and visit farms in Inwood, Hiawatha and Thompson townships stopping for dinner at the Cooks Consolidated School, where the PTA of that school will serve dinner. Inspection will continue throughout the afternoon.

The tour is open to everyone who wishes to go and businessmen in general are urged to make the trip.

In addition to meeting the potato growers, looking over the crops and enjoying an outing, several new methods of harvesting and new equipment will be demonstrated.

In order that preparations may be made to serve everyone at the school, everyone planning to make the trip is urged to notify Lars Olson, chamber of commerce secretary not later than Monday noon.

Ed Jewell, song leader extraordinary, will be with the entourage and lead the singing at the dinner.

BY JAY ARRELL

BY JAY ARRELL

People of Manistique are talking football these days.

And that includes a lot of people who twenty or more years ago thought they had "put away such childish things."

But it has been a good many years since Manistique high school has won four games in a row and stands a good chance of winning a fifth and there is no use talking—nothing succeeds like success.

Home folks are still remembering what happened three years ago when the Emeralds were losing game after game and the school spirit was so low that right in the middle of a very disheartening exhibition, aided and abetted by a misty drizzle of Manistique harbor dew, the students, including members of the band got up and beat it for home.

The students got something of a razzing from the town folks. "How can you expect the kids to put up a fight if they don't get better support?" folks were asking.

Over in the Elks club one evening someone sprung a remark of that sort and someone else piped "Why blame the student body, when the town doesn't give the team any support?" he added that he was informed that there were but three adults in the stadium at that time.

The upshot of this griping was a booster game. The Elks took the initiative in getting out a crowd and whooping things up and the comeback of the team at this, the tail-end of the season, is football history. The kids fought the opposition to a standstill and while the game was lost by two measly points it was a moral victory as good as 30 to 0.

The Elks have continued to plug a booster game a season, going out and selling tickets.

This year the booster game is the one between the Emeralds and Newberry Friday evening and the Elks are out to sell 3,000 tickets and probably will.

The Newberry Elks are co-operating in a fine way for they are just as proud of their team as we are of ours. They are guaranteeing more than 100 admissions alone.

Tonight the high school band and the city band will lead and followup in a monster parade followed by a huge bon fire. This is primarily for the student body, but by no means exclusively for it. Old timers are asked to be out and mix, whoop things up and perhaps reminisce.

Friday night's game begins at 8:30. The Manistique High school band, its majorettes and its cheerleaders have something extraordinary cooked up for between halves.

A good public address system will help acquaint everyone present with all the thrilling details.

MILES STANLEY RITES SATURDAY

Remains Arrive Here
Saturday Morning

Pvt. Miles O. Stanley, jr., a former Thompson resident, who lost his life on February 6, 1944, while fighting with the American armed forces at Anzio Beachhead, Italy, will be brought home for reburial Saturday morning and funeral services, with full military honors will be held in the afternoon.

His remains will arrive with military escort on Saturday morning, where members of various ex-servicemen's organizations will be on hand to escort the casket to the Mortuary Home. Funeral services will be held at the funeral home at 2:00 o'clock with the Rev. G. A. Herbert, pastor of Zion Lutheran church in charge. Full military honors will be accorded at the graveside at Fairview cemetery.

Miles was born in Thompson on Nov. 17, 1914, attended schools there and later Manistique High school, from which he graduated in 1932. On February 1, 1935, at Thompson, he was married to Miss Dorothy Semple. Prior to his enlistment he was employed at an ammunition plant at Gary, Indiana. He entered the armed service in July, 1943.

Surviving him are his widow, Dorothy, of Pontiac; son, Wayne William, and a daughter, Gloria Ann, of Thompson; his father, Miles O. Sr., Thompson; a brother, Frank, Gary, Indiana and two sisters, Mrs. Irma Arnold, Manistique; and Mrs. Julia Martin, Manning, Ohio.

Members of the various local military organizations are requested to be at the Legion cottage at 8:30 Saturday morning and go to the depot in a body and also meet at the same place in the afternoon at 1:15 and later march to the funeral home. Business places should display flags both morning and afternoon.

RECENT BRIDE—Miss Helen Schnurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Schnurer, became the bride of Vernon Anderson, son of Mrs. Oscar Anderson, North Houghton avenue, in a ceremony performed Friday evening, September 24 in the First Baptist church, the Rev. W. H. Schobert, officiating. They will make their home in West Bend, Wis. (Linderoth Photo)

Dartball Captains To Meet October 7

Although the dartball season will not begin until Monday, October 11, several teams have been putting in considerable practice and are expected to be in top form when the season opens.

In order to get all details arranged before the season begins, a meeting of captains of each team will be held at the fire hall on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 7. Several important matters will be taken up at that time and a full attendance is desired.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for their remembrances and visits while I was a recent surgical patient at St. Francis hospital in Escanaba. I am very grateful for all the beautiful cards, fruit, candy and flowers. These tokens of kindness shall never be forgotten.

Mrs. Delia Sangraw

Messiah Chorus To Present Old Yule Favorites

At its first meeting held Monday evening the Civic Choral group voted to include old favorite Christmas carols as well as familiar choral selections from Handel's "Messiah" in the concert to be presented during this Christmas season.

A more pleasing musical effect is produced with a large chorus so it was decided that each former member would bring a new member to join the chorus.

Several important matters were left to be voted upon next Monday evening. An election of the officers, president, secretary-treasurer, and publicity agent will be held. The group will also decide whether it will become a formal organization with a membership roster and dues to be paid or whether it will continue as a loose organization of interested members without dues or fees to be paid.

Rehearsals will be held each Monday evening for one hour beginning promptly at 7:30 on the stage of the high school auditorium and the south entrance will be open. All those having music for Handel's "Messiah" are asked to bring their copies with them.

Escanaba-Menominee Game Highlights U. P. Grid Program

Eskymos Reserves Open Season At Menominee

Those unheralded gridiron gladiators of the Escanaba high school reserve squad will get their first taste of fire in a four-game season when they journey to Menominee Saturday afternoon to engage the Maroon Bees in what promises to be a bang-up affair. The game will start at 4:30 Escanaba time.

In this "varsity game of the future" the Eskymos will be out to open the season with a triumph. They are billed to tangle with Kingsford here the following Saturday afternoon, October 9, Iron Mountain here Saturday afternoon, October 16, and Mar-nette here Saturday afternoon, October 23.

For the Menominee jaunt, Coach Jim Rouman will slice his squad of 44 exactly in two, taking along two full teams for the Maroon conflict.

Forty-four cohorts have been working out under the tutelage of Coaches Rouman and Steve Baltic.

The mentors departed from the usual procedure this season by permitting juniors to participate on the reserve squad. The reason for this is simply that not enough sophomores answered the call. They are being taught the "T" and single wing.

Coach Rouman announced this morning that the following men would make the trip to Menominee: Centers—Fred Johnson, Bill Anderson; Guards—Tom Way, Bob Jensen, George Rouman, Duane Brown; Tackles—Jim Nyquist, Bob St. Martin, Bill Cretnes, Merton McCrae; Ends—Dick Shomin, Dick Johnson, John Prokos, Tom Schwalbach; Quarterbacks—Bud Weber, Ralph Drage; Tailbacks—Bob Paterick, Jim Valentine; Fullbacks—Jon Baldwin, Vernon McCarthy; Wingbacks—Jim Cota, Charles Olson.

The injury means a lot. It is so severe that Heath, now 32, may never play again. It robbed the Braves of their most powerful left-handed hitter and cut them to only three outfielders.

Heath wasn't a defensive star, but he is familiar with American league parks, especially the Cleveland stadium. He started his major league career with the Indians and is an old roommate of Bobby Feller.

"Oh, why did I slide?" he moaned after being carried to the clubhouse.

"Because you're a hustling ball player," came the answer from pitcher Jonny Beazley.

Manager Billy Southworth, who is his own third base coach, missed his first game of the season yesterday. He heard the bad news on the radio. Last night he said he had made no decision on a possible series replacement for Heath. To add a player now he would need special permission from Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Guesses here were that he would ask to bring up Marv Rickert from Milwaukee of the American association. Rickert, a left-hander, hit 27 home runs and drove in 117 runs in the class AAA league this year.

Ponto Expects Tough Fight In Newberry, Stigma Tilt Friday

Manistique, Sept. 30—Should Manistique high school lose its title here Friday evening with Newberry, it will not be because of over confidence.

At a pep rally at the high school auditorium this afternoon, Coach Hilton Ponto told the student body that the members of the Emerald team were in fine physical and mental condition and will give a good account of themselves, but he is looking for a close, hard-fought game.

Ponto praised the Manistique line, made up mostly of veteran players. They have showed up

Gladstone Host Saturday To Marquette

Outstanding high school football game in the Upper Peninsula this week is the Escanaba-Menominee Class B classic in Menominee Saturday night when Coach George Ruwisch's Eskymos will pit their undefeated record against Coach Mickey McCormick's defending Upper Peninsula champion Maroons, who have been beaten this season only by the powerful Madison Edgewood aggregation.

The Eskymos defeated Sault Ste. Marie, 20-7, and Ironwood, 24-6, via an efficient rushing game and last Saturday, they called upon the accurate passing arm of Don Carlson's and such capable receivers as Herb Nicholson and Gary Abrahamson to down Norway, 12-7, for their third straight triumph of the season.

It was a victory but too narrow a squeak to satisfy the Eskymos, who are hitting practice sessions this week with a vengeance in preparation for what shapes up as one of their toughest if not their most rugged encounter of the season—the clash with Menominee Saturday night.

Set For Battle

All doubts that McCormick has another potential U. P. champion were dispelled in Kingsford last Saturday night when the Menominee Maroons rolled over the Flivver eleven, 46-6, in a game that reportedly evinced much criticism on the part of Kingsford area fans because of the lop-sided score.

The Maroons scored almost at will (like the Bears rolling over the Packers 45-7 last Sunday), and according to all reports, this was not to the liking of Kingsford fans.

The Eskymos are set to battle to keep their record clean. Spirit and morale of the Eskymos squad is high, and with a display of the fight and aggressiveness that carried it to triumphs over heavier opponents thus far this season, it intends to carry the fight to the Maroons.

Vying with the Escanaba-Menominee tilt for the U. P. spotlight is the Norway-Iron Mountain game Saturday afternoon on the Mountaineer gridiron. Iron Mountain, stung 12-6 by Stambaugh last week after disposing of Ishpeming, 34-6, and squeaking by Marquette, 14-13, to snap a Marine string that extended back to 1945, is set to go all-out in an effort to salvage Menominee range honors.

Norway Seeks Win

And Norway is equally intent to snap out of it after failing to notch a win in three starts. It was decimated by Stambaugh, 6-6; toppled by Iron River, 7-0, on a first quarter fumble and then turned back by the Eskymos. Tough games all, but still not a mark on the victory side of the ledger. The Vikings are still highly regarded and are due to explode any weekend.

Gladstone will be host Saturday to a renovated Marquette eleven that defeated Ishpeming, 19-6, last Friday night. Observers report that this Marquette eleven displayed fight, determination and the results of efficient coaching, the likes of which have not been seen in the Gravenet camp since the days of Alton Kircher and Roger Keast, Redmen mentors of pre-war days.

Escanaba, Manistique and Iron River are the only three undefeated Class B teams in the Upper Peninsula. Menominee is unbeaten in U. P. competition but was set back by Madison. Munising and Stambaugh are unbeaten in Class C competition.

Dartball Meeting In City Hall Next Wednesday Night

With memories of a busy 1947-48 season climaxed by the first annual Delta county dartball tournament, dartball enthusiasts—those baseball athletes of the vertical board—will convene at the city hall council chambers at 7:30 next Wednesday evening to make plans for the coming season.

Two leagues will operate again in Escanaba, the city recreation department announces. Church dartball players and members of the commercial league are ready to go again.

George Grenholm, city recreation director, says new boards will be supplied by the department this season.

Rules will be discussed at the Wednesday session.

DOW WINS OPENER

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 30 (AP)—The Dow AC softball team won the first game of its world series with Buffalo of the American Softball league here last night 4-0 as pitcher Don Mac Donald pitched a perfect game.

SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

This is the story about a fellow named Joe. It seems a lot of people are curious about Joe. His full name is Joe Wolford.

If Joe Wolford is anywhere in Delta county or vicinity, a lot of Escanaba baseball officials, players and fans would certainly be happy to make his acquaintance. Put us down on that list. We're curious, too.

Mr. Wolford, for that is his name, is supposed to have entered Escanaba in the Upper Peninsula Semi-Pro Baseball league for next season. According to Ted Mattson, of Ishpeming, the president of the league, no less, Escanaba will be a member, and the team will be sponsored by Joe Wolford.

That's fine, fine, but the catch is no one prominent in local baseball circles ever heard of Mr. Joe Wolford.

"The name is a little familiar, but I'd have to check the box scores," opined John Schwalbach, former manager of the Escanaba Bears and present commissioner of the Tri County Junior Baseball league.

"Never heard of the guy," barked Jack Beck, playing-manager of the 1948 Escanaba Bears.

So, yoo-hoo, wherever you are, Chloe, come out and face it!

Strictly off the cuff: Ready to jump the gun a bit on the competitive bowling season, the Bark River Lions won their easiest match of the young season at the Arcade last night. . . They beat Northwest Fruit on a forfeit. . . Ray Raymond says it was a cinch. . . Hal Newhouse won No. 20 yesterday, his fourth season of 20 or better. . . He collected 29 in 1944, 25 in 1945 and 26 in 1946.

When Citation won the Sysonby mile at Belmont park yesterday, AP sportswriter John Chandler cracked that Citation had better win all the money he can this year, because next year the handicappers will saddle him with anvils, kitchen sinks and other assorted old weights. . . When Newberry beat Soo, 13-6, last week, it was Newberry's first win over Soo in 10 years. . . Gladstone and Munising are all even in the Rainbow league playoff, and the "rubber" game is set for neutral territory field next Sunday afternoon. . . Previous champions are Escanaba, 1939 and 1940; Munising, 1941; Marquette, 1946, and Negaunee 1947.

Joe McCarthy Won't Give Up

Boston, Sept. 30 (AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy refused today to give up on his struggling Boston Red Sox who are two down to Cleveland with only three to play. He had his pitching plans lined up.

"It's Mel Parnell in the final against Washington," he said, "Jack Kramer will go against the Yankees Saturday and either Joe Dobson or Mickey Harris Sunday."

"Sure Cleveland land won again but they still haven't clinched it. They might lose two of three to Detroit. This might not be over until Sunday or maybe even Monday in a tie."

As a cab driver said on the way back from Fenway Park last night:

"Cleveland is about as likely to lose two or three as it is to snow tonight. But you know, it has snowed up here this time of year."

Tiges Blank Browns; Newhouse Wins 20th

Detroit, Sept. 30 (AP)—They'll turn Briggs stadium over to football after the Detroit Tigers close out their home season today in the finale of a three-game series with the St. Louis Browns.

The only member of the fifth-place Tigers who will leave the city in anything resembling a blaze of glory is Lefty Hal Newhouse, a 20-game winner for the fourth time in his career.

Newhouse set the Brownies down with six hits yesterday in making it an even score of triumphs for him. With better than par hitting from his mates he shut out the visitors 4 to 0 before a slim crowd of only 1,878.

ANOTHER BOXER DIES

Chicago, Sept. 30 (AP)—Kid Dinamita, 22, Santa Domingo welterweight boxer, died in the Cook county hospital today, about five hours after he suffered a technical knockout in a bout at the Chicago stadium last night.

St. Joe Host To Marinette Lourdes '11'

Trojans Play In First Home Night Game

St. Joseph Trojans will be host to the Marinette Lourdes here Saturday night in the first night football game ever to be played in Escanaba. The game will be played at Memorial field, beginning at 8.

Having defeated Gladstone and Bark River-Harris and lost to St. Norbert's to date this season, the Trojans are prepared to go all-out to upset the favored Lourdes eleven.

"All necessary preparations have been made for this night game, and we are assured that lighting is adequate," Father Stephen, St. Joseph's athletic director, said yesterday. "Two new light poles were erected. The field has been surveyed and laid out in conformance to regulations after the homerun fence and automobile guard rails were removed, and bleacher seats have been provided to seat at least 1,500 fans."

Lourdes reigns as the favorite on the basis of comparative scores against the common foe, St. Norbert's. The West DePere eleven walloped St. Joe here Sept. 19 by a score of 42-7. Last week, St. Norbert's stopped Lourdes by 6-0. Bob Noonan coaches the Lourdes eleven, which boasts a heavy line and a fast backfield. Lourdes holds a 28-0 verdict over Stephenson.

Despite this seeming advantage, the Trojans are priming under Coach Tom St. Germain this week in hopes of turning back the Marinette invaders.

TRY AGAIN TONIGHT

Columbus, O., Sept. 30 (AP)—The St. Paul Saints and the Columbus Red Birds will try again tonight to play the fourth game of the final round of the American Association play-offs.

which group is promoting independent night football games at the lighted Memorial field.

Looks Mighty 'Bad,' Observes Bucky Harris

Philadelphia, Sept. 30 (AP)—"Looks bad," a deadpan Bucky Harris observed today.

Harris' comment was made as he studied the American league standings which showed the Cleveland Indians two games ahead of his New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox with only three games to play.

For the Yanks to win the pennant outright, Cleveland must lose its three remaining games while the Yanks are beating the Bucky Harris Athletics and Red Sox.

"It would be funny," Harris said without a change of facial expression, "if the Indians lost those three."

Then he grinned. "But that won't happen. Feller won't lose." Connie Mack, 85, a year-old manager of the A's, figures Cleveland is in. "The Indians are hot," he said, "and the schedule is in their favor."

Montreal Sets Sights On Little Series Cup

By The Associated Press

The Montreal Royals, having won the pennant and the International League's Shaughnessy playoff series, are setting their sights on adding the little world series title to their collection.

Manager Clay Hopper's high flying Royals qualified for a little world series berth last night by humbling the defending playoff champion Syracuse Chiefs, 7-3. The win was the Royals' fourth in five games over the Chiefs in the best four of seven final round series.

HIGH DAILY DOUBLE

Northville, Mich., Sept. 30 (AP)—The daily double at Northville Downs last night paid $135.60 as Voltaira, the favorite, took the first race and Tony Boy, a $30.40 long shot, captured the second.
